Kenton and his wife Pam farm 13,000 acres south of Humboldt growing canola, barley, peas, oats, winter wheat, soft white wheat and red spring wheat.

Kenton serves on the board of Saskatchewan Agrivision Corporation Inc., and is vice-chair of Saskatchewan Ag-Entrepreneurs. He also serves on the CFBMC Beginning Farmers Committee and the Saskatchewan Farm Support Review Committee. Kenton has also worked with Ducks Unlimited in promoting winter wheat production.

Kenton and Pam were awarded Saskatchewan's Outstanding Young Farmer award in 2006.

Kenton and Pam have two young children.
